We know we have to be there - the logistics stand in the way - money and lodging and transportation, in the middle of the week. And then there are jobs, families, responsibilities. Ballsack-eyes is not funding our travel. But if you miss this glorious event, you will have no bragging rights in history. No tales for your grandchildren about the day you were a patriot and a hero. About how the world changed and how many Anifags you dutifully dispatched to effect that change. Go Go Go Go Go

Yes! Welcome! Bring warm clothing! Remember 5 Gallon paint bucket can be a porta-potty when they close everything down. Renting a van/uhaul might be better than a car for this. Propane personal heaters are amazing, but don't use them in closed cars. Lots of water and high-calorie foods. Make friends, but don't tell them about what you have or where it is.

Don't forget a Graco X5 sprayer, generator and a mixer. After mixing the feces to a suitable consistency it will allow you to paint large numbers of commies simultaneously, and can accept up to 75 feet of hose.

I'm very much looking forward to it! I took time off from my job for the very first time to take a stand for liberty in the last bastion of freedom in the world, and for a complete repudiation of the CCP and all it stands for. Been making preparations over the past few days for my trip - see you there!

By the way - I wanted to add that unlike what the fake news might say about the protesters being a bunch of “racist white uneducated people”, I am an Asian pede and I fully expect that there will be a significant number of non-white faces in the crowd. Many of us have witnessed firsthand what communism did to our native countries and we don't intend it to happen here again without a fight!

Thats how I felt when the 6th was first announced. There was a lot of doubt that this wasn't going to be that large, that the propaganda has worked and everyone was beginning to accept the results.

Thats when I realized that it was a disinformation attack. They want US to think its over, when it clearly is not. We can only control that which is in our lives, and to believe that we are not alone on this.

This is the biggest Trust exercise in history, and I have nothing but that for all of your pedes and Trumpj
